Leveraging twenty years of lending software experience, Abrigo Community Lending focuses on streamlined workflows and easy-to-use interfaces. Colin Hinkle of Hendricks County Bank and Trust, an early user, said, “If I were a loan officer meeting someone for lunch, I could complete the loan application between the time I ordered and my food arrives, which is perfect.”

“Abrigo is committed to helping community financial institutions strengthen their customer relationships by providing innovative technology, and our partnerships with 2,400 institutions reflect that,” said Jay Blandford, Abrigo CEO. “We know many community financial institutions lack IT resources to implement software, which is why we created a streamlined lending platform they can get up and running quickly.”

Abrigo Community Lending’s guided workflows for multiple loan types help lenders stay on task and on time, enabling them to enhance their client experience and improve their efficiency ratios without adding staff. Abrigo Community Lending includes everything a community financial institution needs to grow without unnecessary complexity.
